Tour Overview

Join us on a magical rail journey from Beijing to St Petersburg and travel 9062kms along the legendary Trans Mongolian and Trans Siberian Railways. Discover the history and culture of Beijing including Tiananmen Square, Temple of Heaven and The Great Wall of China. Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia will excite you with Zaisan Memorial, Gandan Hidd Monastery and Khustai National Park. In Yekaterinburg discover the history and intrigue surrounding the brutal murders of the Romanov Family. Sample the nomadic life staying in a traditional Mongolian Ger camp, and plunge into the freezing cold waters of Lake Baikal, Siberia (after a few Russian vodkas!). Enjoy a walking tour of Irkutsk and visit Nizhny Novgorod; the picturesque former trading post that has an impressive cliff top Kremlin. Also, visit the Golden Ring cities of Suzdal and Vladimir, two of the oldest settlements in Russia. Conclude your journey in historic Moscow and stunning St Petersburg.
